Rent the Marshall M. Fredericks Sculpture Museum for your Event. It's Magic!

The Marshall M. Fredericks Sculpture Museum features a unique collection of more than two thousand works that span the 70-year career of Michigan-based sculptor Marshall M. Fredericks (1908-1998). He is known nationally and internationally for his impressive monumental figurative sculpture, public memorials, fountains, portraits and medals.

The Museum's Main Exhibit Gallery features a permanent exhibit of more than 200 works by Fredericks, including plaster models, sketches, site models, bronzes, portraits and wall reliefs. The Sculptor's Studio features a collection of objects from Fredericks's former studios in Royal Oak and Bloomfield Hills, Michigan. The Museum also offers two temporary exhibition galleries where the works of regional, national and international artists are shown; classroom; gift shop; and reception area. An outdoor sculpture garden features a growing collection of 24 of his bronze sculptures on the beautifully landscaped campus of Saginaw Valley State University.

The Museum classroom is 1,400 square feet and has smart podium capabilities with internet.
